Gripping technique	Manhattan - Lift high, Vacuum

The Manhattan Cardboard Box gripper is constructed for lifting and stacking large carton boxes on top of each other, which is particularly useful within the furniture industry.

This gripper comes with two interchangeable applications to accommodate for boxes of different sizes and weights. The vacuum cups on these applications are designed to be able to grip cardboard securely.

With a 2.1-meter stroke length, the Manhattan Cardboard Box gripper is perfect for lifting boxes high up in narrow spaces. As for ergonomics, the operator's hands are always ergonomically placed at waist-height while working with the gripper.
